RESISTING ARREST, EVADING ARREST Case No. 9847989 and 9847990 - Richard R.

JURY TRIAL VERDICT: NOT GUILTY

Richard was accused of assaulting his wife, fighting with the police in front of his home, and then fleeing. Prior to trial the State dismissed the Assault case. The Jury on the Evading and Resisting cases was out thirty minutes.

"On Thanksgiving Day at my home two police jumped on me & I had to get away from them by running through my house & out the back door. I have a prior felony record and did not think anyone would believe me and my family over two police. My prayers were answered when I found Mr. Haggard! I am the sole support for my family & Mr. Haggard basically kept them from being out on the street... Mr. Haggard was smooth & persuasive and the jury was out only thirty minutes.

* Information obtained from the Arrest Records of the Harris County District Clerk's Office.

† Evidence of prior performance should not be taken as a guarantee of future success. Tactics, strategies, and defenses will vary.

Also, I wanted badly to testify in my own behalf, but Mr. Haggard convinced me that, with my felony record, I shouldn't. I am so glad that I had Mr. Haggard to fight for me." ~ Richard R.

EVADING ARREST Case No. 1258470 -Joyce H.

GRAND JURY NO-BILL

This was a high speed chase with lights and sirens resulting in an accident with an unrelated vehicle in the middle of the chase - which then continued after the accident. (A related case of Failure to Stop and Give Information was filed which we got dismissed.) Joyce had taken her daughter to re-enroll in high school after the Dismissal of two related CPS cases of child abuse and runaway. While the ISD police officer was investigating the allegations that the cases had not been dismissed, Joyce nervously made for the door of the school with her daughter in tow. The officer physically detained Joyce, who pushed the officer and shouted "Run!" to her daughter. The daughter ran and Joyce followed in her vehicle despite the officer's cries to stop. Joyce picked up her daughter, who had been on foot, disregarding police lights and sirens, drove on the median, ran a stop sign, ran a red light, hit a vehicle in the intersection, spun out of control and then kept going until the officer lost sight of her. (Another officer found her.) Joyce had a lengthy criminal history and at the time these charges were filed on her she was paroled out of TDC on felony drug charges. We prepared the evidence and defenses, aggressively argued the case with the DA's and finally were able to get the case and our client – whom we prepared for this all-important testimony - before the Grand Jury.

"I put my faith in Mr. Haggard and God and neither let me down. Mr. Haggard gave me excellent advice the whole way through and I don't think I would be at home with my family without him. He's an excellent attorney and he will fight for you until the end." ~ Joyce H.

EVADING ARREST W/ MOTOR VEHICLE Case No. 1128183 - James W.

DISMISSED

James had borrowed a car from a friend, unaware it was stolen. He had no prior criminal record or police contact so when police put their lights on, and his passenger "friend" jumped out and ran, James reacted in fear and, without thinking, ran also. This formed part of our defense, which led to a Dismissal.

EVADING ARREST W/ MOTOR VEHICLE Case No. 1021135 - Louis U.

DISMISSED

Louis was stopped after leaving a bar where he had consumed six beers. He did not want to contest his DWI charge but he did want to contest the evading case, as he did not realize the police were after him. Once he realized they were, he was almost home (less than one block), there was no place to pull over, so he pulled into his driveway.

EVADING ARREST Case No. 862,296 - Robbie S.

DISMISSED

RESISTING ARREST [LENGTHY PRIOR RECORD] Case No. 1732665 - Santos N.
WEEKEND IN JAIL ON FIRST SETTING Jan. 26, 2011

Santos already had a bad record when he admittedly fought, cursed and otherwise struggled against police who were trying to arrest him for Public Intoxication while at a concert at the Toyota Center. He hired us to use our contacts and experience to get him the best deal in as short a time as possible - which we did, on the first setting.

"Mr. Haggard worked a wonderful deal on the first setting at court & kept his word that he would handle this case as quickly as possible. I have a bad criminal record but he still got me a only a weekend in jail. I thank him forever." ~Santos N.

RESISTING ARREST Case No. 984631 - Chad BDISMISSED*RESISTING ARREST Case No. 1135629 - James T. DISMISSED BY FIRST COURT APPEARANCE*HINDERING APPREHENSION Case No. 1228090 - Buddy C.DISMISSED

Client was accused of misinforming the police that his son was not at home. His son had returned home in the early morning hours without client's knowledge. By carefully reconstructing and documenting the son's travel timeline, we were able to convince Prosecutors client was truly unaware that his son was in the house at the time police came looking to arrest him on an open warrant.

HINDERING APPREHENSION Case No. 1014673 - Franklin H.DISMISSED

"Mr. Haggard diligently worked my case with confidence to assure justice for me." ~ Franklin H.

INTERFERING WITH POLICE OFFICER'S DUTIES Case No. [Expunged by HLF] - Tammy S.
JURY TRIAL VERDICT: NOT GUILTY

Tammy was accused of interfering with police attempts to arrest a third party. We prepared a security guard/ eyewitness for superb testimony on behalf of Tammy and then convinced our hand-picked jury of her innocence.

"Mr. Haggard was aggressive and never let his guard down. He fought hard for me and was great at presenting my case. He allowed me to make all my decisions & offered me options. The Jury liked him too." ~ Tammy S.
